The little village chapel in Malham in the Yorkshire Dales became a class of another Methodist Church some years ago. It remains open for worship and as a visitor centre. Here, folk can explore the local area via the beautiful paintings on the floor, enjoy some quiet or browse pictures etc on the walls. Early on visitors were offered a small knitted angel with a Christian message to take home and over the years thousands have gone all over the world. This is an appeal for knitters around the District to join in with 'angel production'. They are very easy to knit!
